Chamber of Commerce's Plans for the Future

Founded in 1935, the Greater Picayune Chamber of Commerce is growing at a steady pace today.

The Chamber's mission statement is "To promote business; enhance economic and community development; build value-added relationships and serve as the catalyst for improving the overall quality of life in our community."

Under the guidance of Executive Director Terry Farr, the Chamber's membership has grown to 300 members, an increase of about 100 in his two years at the helm. There are three goals of the Chamber, to increase membership to 500 in the coming year; develop a strong financial plan and develop a structure to add value to members and the community. While he admits that reaching 500 members by 2020 is a bit lofty, he said that nothing was ever achieved by setting the bar low. "If you have a business in Pearl River County, you ought to be a member of the Chamber of Commerce," Farr said.

Being a member has a number of benefits. Various events are offered by the Chamber throughout the year, so Farr would like to see an increase in member attendance at those events because they are great networking opportunities.

Additionally, the Chamber provides opportunities for business and community leaders to become involved, whether it's through joining a committee, networking with other members, or just putting a face to a name by attending one of the many events held by the Chamber.

To help reach the goal of 500 members by the end of 2020, members of the Chamber's Board of Directors are working to add more value to membership, which will be discussed during an upcoming retreat of the Board members. Farr said that when a Chamber can provide that level of benefit, it negates the price of membership because the member's business grows.

To successfully hold those events, Farr said he needs sponsors. One of the ways he's been able to hold more events in the past two years was by increasing the number of sponsors from eight to 49. He will continue to grow the number of sponsors by offering five instead of four sponsorship levels. By having more options, a business owner can find the level that is right for them. Through fundraising efforts, the Chamber has also been able to continue offering scholarships to local students. Farr said his aim is to provide $5,000 in scholarships each and every year, which will help ensure recipients can continue their education. The next step will be to build ample opportunities for a career to entice this county's youth to stay close to home to make a living.

"Serving Pearl River County and surrounding area"

N. MAIN ST

Over the past few years, the Greater Picayune Area Chamber of Commerce has continued to hold successful events, and added new ones to grow the value of membership.

Some of those events keep the public informed, while others ensure the youth of this county have a say in what the future holds.

To keep the public informed, the Chamber holds a regular events where local governmental leaders can share updates about the goals and efforts ongoing in Pearl River County. City updates allow the mayor to talk about upcoming projects that aim to repair roads and other aspects of the city's infrastructure.

County updates allow a representative of the Board of Supervisors to share efforts for infrastructure repair and plans to grow the county economically.

Legislative updates bring in local members of the House of Representatives and Mississippi State Senate to speak about their efforts in the Legislature to pass or defeat laws.

Just for Fun Lunch events allow the members to gather at a designated restaurant to not only draw in more business, but allow the members to network.

Other networking events includes the monthly Morning Call Breakfast, annual Membership Meeting, After Hours events and functions held at Crosby Commons. Farr said the After Hours events are a good way to bring people into a business for the first time.

Grand openings and ribbon cuttings alert the membership and public to the presence of a new or expanding business.

And during Capitol Day in Jackson, the Chamber spreads the word about the Picayune area via a table stocked with information and samples from local businesses. That event also allows the Chamber an opportunity to speak with legislators who they don't see regularly.

Established this year, the Student Leadership Summit is a way to gather the area's best and brightest from local high schools to share facts about the area from local leaders, and then task them with finding ways to ensure growth in this area is a top priority. Farr said he plans to hold the summits annually.

@Paint your own Studio

Just north of New Orleans, across Lake Pontchartrain and the Pearl River, is a place called Picayune. Here, in the southern most tip of Mississippi, things are a bit more relaxed.

We are 40 miles from the hustle and bustle of New Orleans and the big gaming action of the Mississippi Gulf Coast, we are strategically located to offer the best of both worlds: a hometown atmosphere and easy access to the busy world.
